5. Health Warning

(A) Weil's Disease is a bacterial infection carried in rats' urine which contaminates water and wet riverbanks. The bacteria are absorbed through the skin or mucous membranes of the mouth and eyes. It gets into the blood stream very easily should you become immersed and you have a minor cut on your skin or feet. If you feel ill after training or have any of the following symptoms, call your doctor promptly. The most common early symptoms are high temperature, an influenza-type illness and muscle pains. Tell your doctor that you have been undertaking water activities at Frensham and ask if you can have a blood test for Weil's disease.

(B) Certain species of the blue-green algae can produce toxins, which, upon contact, may cause a number of conditions such as dermatitis, asthma, eye irritation, rashes, blistering of the skin around the mouth and nose, nausea, gastroenteritis, muscle cramps, headaches and pneumonia in some people.

6. Registration

All course participants (or in the case of children under the age of 16, their parent / guardian) must sign a register on arrival on the first morning of the course. Signing the register will be deemed to be confirmation of acceptance of these Terms & Conditions.

7. In loco parentis

For children under the age of 16 taking part in RYA training at the Club, the parent / guardian accepts that:

(A) The parent / guardian will be on-site at the club until the course has officially started and return 15 minutes before the end of each day of the course.

(B) The parent / guardian allows the Senior Instructor or Chief Instructor in charge of the specific course to act in loco parentis in their absence.

(C) The parent / guardian intending to remain on site for the whole or part of a day shall sign an 'On Site' register for each day on site.

(D) The Senior Instructor, Chief Instructor or Principal reserves the right to remove a child from the course at any time.

(E) Children must not be removed from the club during a course, including at the end of the day, without informing the course Senior Instructor.
